†. Absent from College by permission.
‡. Dismissed since the beginning of the present year.

ADMISSION.

It is required that candidates for admission be not less than fourteen years of age for the Freshman class, with a corresponding increase for an advanced standing—that they furnish evidence of a good moral character, and, if from another College, a regular dismission, and that they sustain a satisfactory examination on the PREPARATORY STUDIES, or for an advanced class, on the several studies to which the class they propose to enter has attended. None can be admitted into the Senior class after the winter vacation.

PREPARATORY STUDIES.

1. English, Latin, and Greek Grammar, including prosody and correct accentuation in reading.
2. Sallust, or Cæsar's Commentaries.
3. Virgil's Æneid.
4. Cicero's Select Orations.
5. Prose of the Greek Reader. [Or Greek Testament and Græca Minora.]
6. Geography and Arithmetic.

The ENTRANCE EXAMINATION is held on the Monday preceding Commencement, and on the last day of the ensuing vacation.

COURSE OF INSTRUCTION.

The whole course of instruction occupies four years; and the students, in all the classes, are usually required to attend three exercises on each day.

The object of the course is to form the mind to habits of accurate discrimination, close reasoning, and vigorous application; and at the same time, to furnish it with the great leading facts and principles in Literature, Science, and the Arts.

The following is a general view of the Studies of each Term:

FRESHMAN CLASS.

I. TERM.
- Folsom's Livy.
- Xenophon's Anabasis.

BOOKS OF REFERENCE.

The following books are recommended for reference in the department of Ancient Languages: Anthon's or Sophocles' Greek Grammar, Donnegan's Greek Lexicon, Potter's or Cleveland's Greek Antiquities, Andrews' & Stoddard's Latin Grammar, Leverett's Latin Lexicon, Ramshorn's Latin Synonyms, Adams' Roman Antiquities, Eschenburg's Manual of Classical Literature, Anthon's Classical Dictionary, Butler's Atlas Classica, Anthon's Greek Prosody.

LECTURES.

Lectures are delivered on those subjects in the college course which are not more advantageously taught by the use of approved text books—viz:

To the Senior class on Chemistry in the.....1st term,
Mineralogy and Geology,...2d and 3d terms,
Anatomy and Physiology,...2d and 3d terms.
Astronomy, ...2d and 3d terms,
Evidences of Christianity,..3d term.

To the Junior class, on Classical Literature, ...1st term.
Natural Philosophy, ...2d term,
Rhetoric,.....3d term.

To the Sophomore class, on Style, ...2d term.

To the Freshman class, on Elocution, ...1st term.

RHETORICAL EXERCISES.

Frequent exercises in Composition, Translation, and Forensic Disputation, take place in the several classes. Besides these, on Wednesday and Saturday of each week, all the students are required to attend public exhibitions in the Chapel, of Declamation, Select Translations from the Classics, and original Essays and Orations, under the direction of the Professor who has charge of the Rhetorical Department.

LIBRARIES AND CABINETS.

The College and Society Libraries, amounting nearly to 10,000 volumes, are at all times accessible to Students. Geological and Mineralogical Cabinets are also connected with the College, sufficiently large for the ordinary purposes of instruction.

RELIGIOUS INSTRUCTION.

Prayers are attended in the College Chapel every morning and evening, with reading of the Scriptures. Public services are also generally attended in the Chapel, on the Sabbath, when all the Students are required to be present, except such as have permission to attend at other places of worship.

EXAMINATIONS.

1. Of all the classes at the close of the first term.
2. Of all the classes at the close of the second term.
3. Of the Senior class four weeks previous to Commencement.
4. Of the three other classes the week previous to Commencement.

PUBLIC PERFORMANCES.

1. Junior Exhibition, one week after the beginning of the third term.
2. Prize Declamations, on the evening preceding Commencement.
3. Commencement, on the fourth Wednesday in July.

TERMS.

1. From the third Wednesday in September, thirteen weeks.
2. From the first Wednesday in January, thirteen weeks.
3. From the fourth Wednesday in April, to Commencement.

EXPENSES.

Board, from $0,75 to $1,50 per week,	$29	25 to	$58	50
Room rent, average $3,00 per term,	9	00 "	9	00
For sweeping, and other contingencies,	4	00 "	4	50
For expense of recitation rooms,	1	00 "	1	50
Tuition in Senior and Junior classes,	30	00 "	30	00
Amount in Senior and Junior classes,	$73	25 "	$103	50
Tuition in Sophomore and Freshman class,	21	00 "	21	00
Amount in these classes,	$64	25 "	$94	50

In addition to the above, any damages voluntarily committed in the community of Students are charged to the individuals committing them, when known: to the whole body when not known, under the name of Extra Contingencies.

The above estimate of expenses is, of course, very considerably diminished in the case of those Students who take advantage of the resolution of the Board of Trustees, which provides for a remission of their bills for tuition.

A Student admitted to an advanced standing, unless from another College, is charged, to the Sophomore class $7, to the Junior $10, and to the Senior $12.

PAYMENT OF BILLS.

It is provided by a resolution of the Board of Trustees:

1. That no student shall be permitted to enter on a second or any succeeding term, until he shall have paid, or secured to the satisfaction of the Treasurer, the fees of the preceding term.

2. That no student can have an honorable dismission from this College, or certificate of his previous attendance in it, until all his bills are paid, or satisfactorily secured.

3. That any Student whose circumstances render it necessary, provided he proves himself a worthy member of the College, and his under graduate course is completed in this institution, can have his bills for tuition remitted.

ABSENCE FROM COLLEGE.

The portion of the year allotted to vacations is so great, as to render it quite unnecessary for the Students to visit their friends during the term, except for urgent and unforeseen reasons. The occasional loss of a day, can not fail to have an unfavorable bearing on the intellectual habits and standing of the Student. It is hoped that parents and guardians will concur with the Faculty, in their opinion of the inexpediency of granting leave of absence in ordinary cases.
